About Deborah

Deborah Armstrong is a Canadian dairy farmer who writes hot and spicy contemporary romance. She lives on the family dairy farm with her husband and 500 cows. She is a sucker for a great romance. When she isn't reading or writing romance, Deborah can be found watching the news, listening to music, or somewhere on the farm visiting with the cows who she lovingly calls The Ladies. Deborah is an advocate for agriculture and Canadian Dairy. She posts pictures of her cows, coffee mugs, travel, and writing memes on social media.
